

ABOVE THE LAW?

Despite substantial campaign finance violations, an FEC audit of the Obama campaign is unlikely

- Millions in illegal foreign donations.
- At least a million over the hard money limit.
- Credit card tracing intentionally disabled, allowing for millions in fake donations.
- Donors with names like "Hbkjb, jkbkj," "Della Ware," and "Saddam Hussein."

Money that will never be returned and never be accounted for.

The FEC won't do an audit because it would "embarrass" the incoming president?
Is the president above American law?
